A map of Utah showing a route for a biathlon. The route starts in Spanish Fork, goes south through Salem, Elk Ridge, Thistle, Birdseye, Indianola, Milburn, Fairview, and ends at Forest Road 0007A. A callout box indicates a 1 h 10 drive for 60.9 miles. The map also shows major roads like I-15, I-89, and US-63. Landmarks like Provo Peak, Spanish Fork Peak, and Loافر Mountain are marked.A black and white line drawing of a cross-country skier in a dynamic pose, leaning forward with poles planted in the snow.A photograph showing a group of people, likely participants and organizers, standing in a snowy field. They are wearing winter jackets and hats. Some are looking towards the camera, while others are talking.A photograph of an outdoor event in a snowy, wooded area. People are gathered around a table or structure, and there are trees in the background. The scene is overcast.A stylized logo of a mountain range. It consists of a green diamond shape with a white mountain peak inside. Below the peak is a yellow horizontal bar, and the entire logo is outlined in green.

This annual event is now sponsored under the direction of Venturing Crew 1532 – chartered by the Spanish Fork/Salem Area Chamber of Commerce.

Participation is limited as a trade-off for better and newer skis, boots and poles.

Ski times will be based on registration timing and boot sizes.
